AHAI News and Notes:

- Members were reminded that the time for baseline concussion testing is coming to an end for this season

Suburban Business:

- Current team rosters were due October 15. Any team that has not turned in their roster needs to do so right away. Rosters must be certified to qualify for league play. Email roster link to Ron Abels.
- Referee issues were briefly discussed. Any club that has an issue with referees is urged to complete the referee evaluations and to email Ron Abels and Bob Stevenson with their concerns.
- Club were reminded that according to League rules handshakes are to be done prior to game play. This is not determined by referees. Any club that is having a problem with the referees regarding this rule should let Ron know.
- Second league fee payment is due by 5th game. Any club that is having a problem meeting their obligation should contact Peter Ingram to make arrangements.
- Clubs were reminded of paperwork that needs to be turned in as soon as possible; hold harmless, code of conduct and rosters. Jersey numbers should be added to the rosters via Cybersports. Jersey numbers are critical for keeping stats accurate and timely.
- Team tiering will be discussed at the November league meeting in preparation for game scheduling.
- Scheduling for the balance of the season will be held on Saturday November 23. Any club that has not already submitted the balance of their home ice needs to do so. Ron reminded everyone that it is not a good practice to try and schedule games around any particular player or players.
- Available ice slots were discussed. AWFG has ice for sale, as well as the IHSWL West Division.
- Ron made a brief treasurer's report that the League continues to be in good fiscal position.
- Clubs were reminded that regular season game referees will be scheduled by the League. Anyone needing referees for practice games may choose to contact Bob Stevenson to schedule them. Apologies were made to those teams where referees failed to show. Club compensation will be made and the game rescheduled.

ACHA COLLEGE GAME

Clubs were reminded and urged to attend the Lewis University home games being played at Canlan Ice Arena.

Meeting adjourned 8:09pm
