AHAI News and Notes:

- College Night Monday October 9 at 7:00pm Woodfield Hyatt 1800 E Golf Road Schaumburg – anyone wishing to attend must register online (AHAI website under Events tab)
- Step aHead concussion testing available until November 30
- Coaches not certified by December 31 are not allowed on bench or on the ice during practice

Suburban Business:

- Handshake policy has been changed to post-game by vote of membership to be implemented this year
- 2 man referee system for all games, Varsity and JV, was voted on and approved by the members. It was also agreed that premium rates would be paid to our referees to insure better quality. Any team requiring more than the 2 man crew will have to pay for the additional men.
- Approved rosters must be turned in to Ron prior to first game
- Indiana team rosters will be frozen for Illinois play
- League fees: Varsity $3,000 – JV $2,500 – at least half of season fees are due by October 31 – fees must be paid in full by December 31 – if at any time payment arrangements need to be made please contact Ron immediately - please be sure League Treasurer, Tracy Fritz, has current club treasurer information
- Necessary paperwork: Hold Harmless form; Code of Conduct for each club; club contacts
- All Star game scheduled for January 7, 2018
- Dave Zednik is our AHAI game officials assigner; contact info: 224-808-0565, zed@ahai2.org
- Scoresheets – jersey numbers must be listed on scoresheets. Scoresheets that do not have numbers and/or are illegible will be returned.
- Each club is required to have R&E committee. Social media is/has become a huge problem. We ask that each club and parent be aware of what is being posted and encourage you to make this a part of your code of conduct.
- Dave is available to discuss current rule changes and enforcements with your club. Contact him directly to set up date and time.
- Contact Dave directly for practice game officials.

meeting adjourned 9:24 pm
